Introduction

The primary objective of internal audit is to review, appraise and report upon the adequacy of internal control systems operating throughout the council. To achieve this SALC adopt a predominantly systems-based approach to audit.

The council's internal control system comprises the whole network of systems established within the council to provide reasonable assurance that the council's objectives will be achieved, with reference to:

- the effectiveness of operations
- the economic and efficient use of resources
- compliance with applicable policies, procedures, laws, and regulations
- the safeguarding of assets and interests from losses of all kinds, including those arising from fraud, irregularity, and corruption

- the integrity and reliability of information, accounts, and data

Methodology

When conducting the audit, the internal auditor may:

- conduct a selective assessment of compliance with relevant procedures and controls expected to be in operation during the financial year in order to be able to complete the Annual Internal Audit Report 2024/25 of the Annual Governance and Accountability Return (AGAR)
- review the reliability and integrity of financial information and the means used to identify, measure, classify and report such information
- review the means of safeguarding assets and, as appropriate, verify the existence of such assets
- appraise the economy and efficiency with which resources are employed, identify opportunities to improve performance and recommend solutions to problems
- review the established systems to ensure compliance with those policies, procedures, laws, and regulations which could have a significant impact on operations, and determine whether the council complies
- review the operations and activities to ascertain whether results are consistent with objectives and whether they are being conducted as planned

Section 1 – proper bookkeeping The internal auditor will look at the methods and processes used to manage the council's accounts and in particular that it provides clear data for reporting and monitoring purposes. This includes checking information is accurate, kept up to date, referenced and verified.
Evidence		Internal auditor commentary
Is the ledger maintained and up to date?	YES	The council has Easy PC and provided accounts in an excel format producing reports on a payments and receipts basis ensuring the financial transactions of the council are as accurate as reasonably practicable.
Is the ledger on the correct basis in relation to the gross income/expenditure? (under Proper Practices, Councils are required to work on an Income & Expenditure basis when their gross income, or gross expenditure, exceeds £200,000 for 3 consecutive years)	YES	Council operates its accounts as payments and receipts.
Is the cash book up to date and regularly verified?	YES	Council follows proper practices in ensuring that its accounting procedure gives an accurate presentation of an authority's true financial position providing clear information to the Council on both a monthly and annual basis.
Is the arithmetic correct?	YES	A number of spot checks were carried out and the functionality of the cashbook was found to be in order.
Additional comments:

Section 2 – Financial Regulation and Standing Orders

The internal auditor will check the date the Council conducted its annual review of both Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and in particular check if these are based on NALC'S latest model which include legislative changes.

Evidence		Internal auditor commentary
Have Standing Orders been adopted, up to date and reviewed annually?	Partly Met	Council has adopted Standing Orders which are based on the latest model published by the National Association of Local Councils (2018) and contain the provisions of the Model Councillor Code of Conduct, however have not been updated to include the revised procurement thresholds and not reviewed during 2024/2025. RECOMMENDATION: Council is aware of the requirement to ensure that the Standing Orders are fully tailored to the council and that in accordance with proper practices they need to be regularly reviewed. Standing Orders should be reviewed annually and updated accordingly.
Are Financial Regulations up to date and reviewed annually?	NO	Financial Regulations, as seen on the council website show a review date of August 2023 and are a previous model. RECOMMENDATION: Regulations should be reviewed annually and based on the publication of the NALC Model Financial Regulations 2024.
